

Inaugural Organisational Psychology Conference “Challenges Facing Irish Leaders Today”

Organised by the Division of Work and Organisational Psychology (DWOP)

2nd March 2007

Burlington Hotel, Upper Leeson St; Dublin 4

8.30am – 4.30pm

Registration at 8.30am

Binna Kandola: Co-founder of Pearn Kandola and one of the UK’s foremost experts on diversity in the workplace

Catherine Clancy: Assistant Commissioner of Gardaí Síochána. She will give some personal insights into her pioneering journey through the Garda organisation to become the first female in the force’s history to attain the rank of Assistant Commissioner.

Séan Ruth: Organisational Psychologist and author of recent ground-breaking book “Leadership & Liberation: A Psychological Approach”

Professor Beverly Alimo-Metcalfe: Professor of Leadership Studies in Leeds University and expert on Transformational Leadership

Margaret Chapman: Senior Fellow in Leadership in the Executive Development Centre in Manchester Business School and leading expert in the UK on Leadership and Emotional Intelligence

CPD Accreditation: 4 points

All members of PSI welcome

Cost: €140 DWOP members

€180 non-DWOP members

Lunch provided on the day

Closing Date for applications: 19th February 2007

-----
Name _____

Job Title _____

Organisation _____

Address _____

Telephone _____

Fax _____

Email Address _____

To register: complete and return booking form with Conference fee to: Pauline Walsh, PSI, CX House, 2A, Corn Exchange Place, Poolbeg Street, Dublin 2. Telephone: 4749160.