

Thinking of becoming a member of PSI? Here are some reasons why you should.

Professional Recognition

Whatever category of membership, psychologists will gain the recognition and respect associated with being a Member of the PSI

For Registered Psychologists, listing on the Register of Psychologists

Professional Representation

Adding your support through membership of PSI gives the profession a stronger and louder voice

Professional Networking

Automatic subscription to the monthly magazine, The Irish Psychologist

Automatic subscription to the professional journal, the Irish Journal of Psychology (except students)

Reduced fee for the PSI Annual Conference

Access to PSI Divisions' events at reduced or even no rate

Access to 'members' only' area on the PSI website

Professional Development

Access to PSI approved Continuing Professional Development (CPD) events

Professional Indemnity Insurance

Low rates for Professional Indemnity Insurance, only available to paid-up members of the PSI.

Financial Services:

Negotiated excellent low rates for car and home insurance for our Members and their immediate families.

Health Services

Reduced annual subscription for PSI Members. Choice of 2 medical insurance companies.

Reduced rate physiotherapy treatments.

Lifestyle

Leisure breaks – excellent hotel rates negotiated for our members, available only through PSI.

Gym membership and sport and leisure equipment at reduced rates, available only to PSI Members.

